Class Gifts are all Priceless!!!

Miss Busch PM Kindergarten: Class Tree

This painting is a nice conversation starter. Miss Busch's AM class has used their fingerprints to make the leaves on the beautiful fall tree.

Miss Busch PM Kindergarten: Hand made jewelry

Just imagine...you can own and wear an original piece of jewelry handmade by the newest and youngest designers of Clifton Elementary School. You will be the envy of your friends if you own one of our extraordinary pieces of jewelry!

Mrs. Gardner: 3D Wall Art

Have your very own piece of Clifton Elementary! This artistic piece is representative of our wonderful school and has been lovingly decorated and signed by Mrs. Gardner's first grade class.

Mrs. Godfrey: Quilt

This is a beautiful one of a kind hand made quilt. Each first grader has hand drawn their own self-portrait.

Mrs. O'Brien: Window box

This adorable window box planter has been lovingly decorated with a fun whimsical scene of dogs running, sitting, and sleeping. But look close! You will see the dogs aren't dogs at all but the print from someone you love

Mrs. O'Quinn: Class photo with frame and decorated mat

Each child carefully fingerprinted around the mat of a large 16x20 inch black frame. The thumbprint is the child's face, and the vibrant children go all the way around so that the frame can be mounted horizontally or vertically, with the included class photo or you may insert your own favorite photo. A great way to remember classmates in the years to come (and if you need help remembering, the initials are creatively hidden in the grass).

Mrs. Batten: Decorative Shower Curtain

This shower curtain has been lovingly decorated in an ocean theme by Ms. Batten's third grade class. The children have created a brightly colored shower curtain filled with ocean life. It will match any decor and leave you smiling long after your shower.

Mrs. Siry: Calendar of all Seasons

This perpetual calendar is beautiful enough to adorn any wall and will help to keep you on schedule and in season. The tiles have been individually hand painted by each of Mrs. Siry's third grade students.

Mrs. Borer: Quilt

This whimsical quilt is an eye-catcher and beautiful enough to decorate your home or just keep you warm. The individual squares have been designed and cut out by each of Mrs. Borer's fourth grade students. A memory every parent will want to treasure.

Mrs. Owens: "Under the Sea" Tote bag

This one of a kind tote was hand decorated by the 4th grade kids. Perfect for carrying books or beach supplies. Could also be used as a shopping bag.

Mrs. Talbot: Photo and Memory Album

This professionally bound book is filled with photos of fun times in fourth grade: book report projects, Learning Garden, Art in the School, Operation Sandwich, Apartment Day and much, much more! As an added bonus, it features an original artwork from each child. A wonderful way to keep all those treasured memories!

Mrs. Lahna: Scrapbook

A picture scrapbook of Ms. Lahna's 5th grade class. Each child has created their own page to share with pictures and memories of their 5th grade year.

Mrs. Dipert: Scrapbook

Mrs. McGourty: Tote bag

This one of a kind tote was hand decorated by the 6th grade kids. Perfect for carrying books or beach supplies. Could also be used as a shopping bag.

Mrs. Zaman: Seaside Mirror

This Mirror is decorated by decoupage images created by Ms. Zaman's 6th grade students and measures 37 X 33 inches. The large white wooden mirror will brighten up that vacation cottage or beach house and remind us of those wonderful memories through the eyes of these creative students.
